PROPERTY DETAILS

Shaded by a gorgeous old tree, this Belmar gem mixes warm wood tones, stone accents, and a welcoming vibe that makes you want to kick off your shoes the second you step inside. The living room glows with hardwood floors, the primary bedroom feels like a cozy retreat with its stylish accent wall, and every corner just says "home." Here's the kicker—you're right in the heart of Lakewood's Belmar neighborhood. That means coffee runs, shopping sprees, and dinner dates are just steps away. Love the outdoors? Parks, trails, and mountain escapes are all close by. Colorado Christian University is practically your neighbor, and downtown Denver is just a quick drive when city nights call. This isn't just a place to live—it's a lifestyle you'll love waking up to every day. Homes here don't sit on the market long, so if you've been dreaming about that perfect mix of comfort, style, and unbeatable location... this is your sign. Come see it. Fall in love. Make it yours. Showings start 8/16/2025.
