PROPERTY DETAILS

Welcome Home.

From the moment you arrive, you'll feel the comfort and ease this home brings to everyday family living. Positioned on a convenient corner lot, this 3-bedroom, 2-bath residence offers space, privacy, and a layout that truly supports a growing household.

As you pull into the 2-car garage, you'll appreciate the peace of mind that comes with a roof only six years old and tinted windows that help keep the home cool-especially during South Florida summers. Inside, the freshly upgraded bathrooms and the spacious primary suite, large enough for a California king, create a sense of calm and retreat at the end of the day.

One of the simple joys of living here is the view right out front. To the right of the home, you'll see peaceful water*perfect for morning coffee moments or evening strolls with the family.

Step into the backyard and you'll instantly feel the charm of this property. Mango, banana, and soursop trees offer not just shade, but harvests your family can look forward to season after season. It's the kind of yard where kids can play, adults can unwind, and everyone can enjoy nature right at home.

This is a place designed for real life-comfortable, practical, and full of small everyday pleasures. A home where your family can settle in, grow, and create lasting memories.
