PROPERTY DETAILS

Discover a historic mansion built in 1900 on prestigious 7th Avenue Historical Street, once home to Dana Crawford, a renowned architectural conservationist in Denver. This estate has been a cherished family residence, hosting generations of memories.

Recently updated with fresh paint, the interior maintains its historic charm. The original garage has been transformed into a one-bedroom carriage house, perfect for guests. There's also space for a new garage at the rear.

The third floor offers private quarters with a kitchen, ideal for a nanny, while the basement features a wine cellar and game rooms.

This mansion combines rich history with modern flexibility, making it a legacy property ready for its next chapter.
