Atlantic Boulevard is actually a major advantage for many buyers; ideal for commuters because they allow residents to reach major employment centers quickly. Key selling points: Quick access to Florida's Turnpike for commuting north or south. Easy connection to Interstate 95 and Sawgrass Expressway. Convenient travel to Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport. Direct routes to Downtown Fort Lauderdale, Boca Raton, and Miami. Nearby Lifestyle & Amenities: shopping & dining; Restaurants and retail along Atlantic Blvd corridor; Short drive to major shopping areas like Pompano Citi Centre; Beaches; About 20 minutes to Pompano Beach Pier and the Atlantic Ocean. Area Recreation: Parks, golf courses, and bike paths throughout the area. Close to water activities, boating, and fishing typical of South Florida coastal living. About the Builder: Home Dynamics Corporation is a South Florida-based home builder headquartered in Boca Raton that focuses on small, well-designed communities across Florida. Specializes in intimate communities rather than massive developments. Focuses on functional floor plans and value-oriented new construction. Known for modern layouts and efficient use of space. Builds communities throughout Florida including Central and South Florida. Built in 2020, meaning: Newer construction; newer roof; modern electrical; current hurricane standards; Impact windows and doors; Huge insurance and storm protection benefit in South Florida. HOA value: Low fee that covers internet, cable, water; landscaping; gated entry; pool; amenities; This is rare because many communities charge $400-$600 without including utilities. Rental flexibility :Rent after 1 year = attractive for investors or buyers who may relocate later. Private backyard: Townhome communities rarely offer large fenced yards, especially with: turf; travertine; spa;
