PROPERTY DETAILS

Nestled on 2.5 private, tree-covered acres, this charming log cabin offers the peace and space so many buyers are searching for in Elizabeth. Surrounded by mature pines, the setting provides a true sense of privacy while still allowing convenient access to everyday essentials. Inside, the home features 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, and 1,737 square feet of comfortable living space. Warm wood finishes and the natural character of the log construction create an inviting, Colorado-style atmosphere throughout. The layout offers flexibility for everyday living and entertaining guests. Step outside and enjoy the quiet lifestyle this property provides—whether it's relaxing on the deck, soaking in the hot tub under the stars, or simply taking in the peaceful surroundings. The expansive lot offers plenty of room for outdoor activities, future improvements, or additional customization to fit your needs. This property also presents a strong opportunity for a buyer to build equity over time. With thoughtful updates and personal touches, there is clear potential to enhance both the home's value and functionality while maintaining its unique charm and setting. If you're looking for space, privacy, and the chance to make a property your own, this Elizabeth log home is one to see.
