PROPERTY DETAILS

Some homes just feel different the second you pull up—and this one absolutely does. Hidden among aspens and pines in Elk Creek Meadows, this Bailey mountain retreat blends rustic charm with spaces that keep revealing little surprises around every corner. Vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, warm wood floors, skylights, and a cozy log gas-burning stove create that hard-to-find Colorado cabin vibe buyers are always chasing. The kitchen brings together farmhouse style and modern comfort with granite counters, stainless appliances, and a layout made for slow mornings and easy gatherings. Step outside and it only gets better. The wooded setting feels private and peaceful, yet you're still close to hiking trails, Pike National Forest, local breweries, coffee shops, and the outdoor adventure Bailey is known for. Whether it's weekend escapes, full-time mountain living, or a place to unplug and recharge, this property checks boxes you didn't even know you had. The photos are intriguing—but the feeling you get here is something else entirely. Come see what's waiting behind the trees before someone else finds it first. Septic Rated for 2 Bedrooms, suitable for 4 people.
