PROPERTY DETAILS

Located just one hour from the Denver Metro area. Nestled among towering pines on a peaceful, wooded lot, this 2-bedroom, 2-bath home offers the perfect balance of rustic character and modern comfort for weekend getaways, a full-time residence, or a vacation rental opportunity. Inside, you'll find warm log walls, soaring ceilings, abundant natural light, and stunning forest views from nearly every window. The inviting living space is filled with mountain charm and provides a cozy setting to relax after a day of hiking, fishing, skiing, or exploring Colorado's great outdoors. Step outside onto the expansive second-story deck and take in the breathtaking mountain scenery surrounded by nature. Additional features include a covered carport, storage space, and easy year-round accessibility with St. Mary's main roads maintained and plowed during the winter months. Whether you're looking for a peaceful mountain escape or a place to call home year-round, this true Colorado log cabin delivers beauty, privacy, and unforgettable views in every season. Come experience mountain living.
