PROPERTY DETAILS

Experience unique sophistication in Southmoor Park! This 1963 home by Fred T. Adams and Sons showcases distinctive Clinker-style masonry, known for its character and fluid appearance. The expansive backyard features a 320-square-foot paver patio with a waterfall and gas fire pit. Inside, enjoy custom shutters and a modern kitchen with a quartzite island and 36" gas range. The den boasts a gas fireplace framed by Italian tile and refinished oak floors. The primary suite offers a serene retreat with a soothing water view and an ensuite bath featuring Italian tile, a walk-in shower, and Bluetooth speaker. A stylish guest bath and updated wet bar complete the space. Located near DTC and Thomas Jefferson High School.
