One-of-a-kind Evergreen Meadows retreat — built by the original owner and never sold since. This is the real deal. A true one-owner home nestled among towering pines in Evergreen Meadows, custom-built by the original owner who poured their heart into every detail. Circular drive, warm ranch exterior, and a huge, detached garage/shop ready for trucks, toys, or your next project. Inside you'll find that classic mountain feel: soaring ceilings, dark wood beams, rich paneling, and a massive stone fireplace that'll make you want to stay all winter. Open living spaces, a kitchen with island and tons of character, plus bedrooms and baths that still have that solid, well-loved Colorado vibe. Big private yard, mature trees, room to breathe — the kind of place that feels like home the second you pull up. Don't miss this rare original-owner gem. Ready to see it? Reach out today and let's get you through the door. Septic rated for 3-bedrooms, suitable for 6 people.
