PROPERTY DETAILS

Ready for that private mountain escape you've been craving? This Conifer home in Silver Ranch Estates sits tucked among the pines with big decks, fresh updates, and space to actually live the Colorado lifestyle. Start your mornings on the wide wood deck with coffee and tree views, then grill out under the big sky. Inside you'll find a bright kitchen with green cabinets, white counters, and a farmhouse sink, plus a clean, modern bathroom. Downstairs the rec room is ready for game night—wood stove, foosball, and plenty of room to spread out. Outside there's a sharp red barn-style garage and extra structures for storage, hobbies, or guests.
You're minutes from Conifer's shops and restaurants, Meyer Ranch Open Space trails, and an easy drive to Denver when you need the city. Private, updated, and ready for its next chapter. Come see it before someone else claims it.
